Monday Filmdom's Night

Oscars to Glitter With Star Galaxy

By VERNON SCOTT

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—More than 100 movie stars will be squeezed into the Academy Award telecast Monday night for the biggest jamboree in filmtown history.

Never before have so many stars appeared on one program.

You name 'em, they'll be on the two-hour show.

Six masters of ceremony, Bob Hope, David Niven, Tony Randall, Mort Sahl, Sir Laurence Olivier and Jerry Lewis, are scheduled to fill the gaps between presentations. And there will be specialty acts aplenty to break up the dull doling out of Oscar statuettes.

For instance, Burt Lancaster and Kirk Douglas—who also teamed last year—will sing and dance their way through "It's All Right With Us."

English imports Dana Wynter, Joan Collins and Angela Lansbury will warble "It's Bully Not No Be Nominated."

BRIEF BITS

Rosalind Russell and Sammy Davis Jr. have brief bits, as do Ingrid Bergman, Cary Grant, William Holden and John Wayne.

An added fillip is the appearance of Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor on the same show.

Maurice Chevalier will sing "Thank Heaven for Little Girls" to a bevy of beauties, including Barbara Rush, Terry Moore, Arlene Dahl and Sandra Dee.

ALL HOLLYWOOD

For the second straight year the entire pageant will emanate from Hollywood, without segments beamed in from New York.

As balloting closed this week straw polls among academy members found the following six nominees the favorites:

Best picture—"Gigi."

Best actress — Susan Hayward (I Want to Live).

Best actor — David Niven (Separate Tables).

Best supporting actress — Wendy Hiller (Separate Tables).

Best supporting actor—Burl Ives (The Big Country).

Best director—Vincent Minelli (Gigi).

MAURICE CHEVALIER

Pram Pushers Press Onward

CHELMSFORD, England (UPI) — A team of 70 boys from the Chelmsford grammar school has cracked the world record for pram-pushing and is still going strong.

The boys, pushing the baby carriage non-stop in a circular path around the school grounds, claimed a new record when they reached the 190-hour mark. The old record was held by Manchester University.

They said they would continue pushing the pram around until the end of their Easter holidays, April 15. By then, they said, they would have an unbeatable record of 500 hours.

Warning Muted

ACQUI, Italy (AP)—Two lumberjacks chopped away at a tree near this north Italian city. Pietro Bogliolo, 86, stepped in the way just as the tree began to fall and was killed.

The lumberjacks looked on helplessly — unable to shout a warning. All three were deaf mutes.
